Killed by Car

At Least 93 Lives Lost in Storm

HILO, Hawaii, April 2.—(AP)—This one beautiful city of 25,000, exposed to the full fury of the tidal waves which yesterday lashed vast areas of the eastern Pacific and all the islands by 7:30 p.m. by 1:30 hours.

On short stations today as rescue squads dug through ruins on its once busy waterfront district.

SCORES ARE MISSING, and in the island of Hawaii alone at least 400 are homeless.

A naval officer expressed fear the death toll in Hilo might reach 300. But there were indications the final figure would be considerably short of this estimate.

Damage throughout the disaster zone, stretching from the Aleutians westward to Midway, eastward to California and southward to Hawaii and Johnston Island, ran into millions of dollars.

A submarine earthquake sent giant swells fanning out from the West coast at 400 to 500 miles an hour early yesterday. Beaches on Hawaii, the Aleutians and California were lashed by 10 to 100-foot waves.

The death toll: Hawaiian islands—60 bodies recovered at Hilo; nine on Oahu; six on Maui and six on Kauai.

To Great Britain Easing of Travel Bans Brings Worry

LONDON, April 2.—(CP)—Canadian proposals to relax entry requirements for persons leaving the Dominion and desiring to visit the United Kingdom are causing anxiety among transport officials here, it was learned today.

WHILE SPACE is available on ships traveling from Great Britain to the United Kingdom, the west-bound traffic is "more difficult than the east-bound," it was learned today.

More than 20,000 west-bound passengers are expected to remain to be moved and also waiting are 3,000 civilians who are expected to return to the United Kingdom as shipping space is available.

The situation is complicated by Canadian servicemen who take their discharges in the Dominion and then return to the United Kingdom. Some spend considerable money making a return trip here and when they find life in a Canadian village is not as attractive as they expected, they apply for assistance in returning to Canada.

The board of directors of the Canadian Travel Bureau is given the task of making arrangements for these cases.

Magistrate Glenn Strife, who is in charge of the United Kingdom high commissioner's office, said that the situation is not as serious as it appears to be.

WINNIPEG, April 2.—(CP)—Edward Freeman, a printer and former member of the Winnipeg Tribune composing room staff, yesterday was sentenced to six months in jail when convicted in city police court of a charge of intimidation.

Two other former Tribune printers, Robert Pettigrew and John J. Hickey, also charged with intimidation, are on remand pending preliminary hearing.

CHARLES VOPNI, employed at the Tribune since the union printers went on strike last November, testified Freeman had threatened "a blow in the eye, and had threatened to give him 'the works'."

"This is a free country and you cannot put yourself above the law and interfere with a man who is earning his living in a legal manner," Magistrate M. J. Garon told Freeman.

Magistrate Garon said he hoped the light sentence would serve as a warning to others that it is a serious offense to interfere with rights of people to work.

He pointed to recent statements in which Reconstruction Minister James H. Stewart had said that he was holding two things which would hold back the development of the railway and said that he was not in a position to give a definite answer to the question of the project.

Appointed by CPR

VANCOUVER, B.C., April 2.—Promotion of Robert A. Emerson to the post of district engineer in the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia was made known in an announcement by W. S. Hall, assistant general manager, Vancouver.

Mr. Emerson has been with the CPR at Kenora, Ont., in 1939 and later served at points throughout the west. He was also in Montreal for a time during 1945 as division engineer. He came to Vancouver in July 1946 to be assistant district engineer, and held that position at the time of his new appointment.

T. W. Creighton, formerly division engineer, Revelstoke, was named to succeed Mr. Emerson in Vancouver and V. H. Carruthers, formerly of Edmonton, moves to Revelstoke as division engineer.

He came to Canada after the First Great War, in which he was gassed, fighting with a Royal Navy division. CSM Osborn, who had relinquished status Dec. 19, 1941. Time and again he picked up flying Jap grenades being hurled at his position and threw them back at the enemy with a reckless disregard for his own safety.

FINALLY A GRENADE fell too far away and he only had time to another it. It exploded just as he covered it and he was killed. His body stopped the flying shrapnel from seriously wounding any of his companions.

Sgt. John Pustey, Winnipeg, survived the grenade attack and the long internment in Japan camp. At Winnipeg he said of his sergeant's deed:

"It was the bravest thing I ever saw a man do."

Sgt. Pustey said that CSM Osborn deliberately threw the grenade with his body when he had no time to leave it back at the enemy. The position of the little Canadian company was surrounded by Japanese at the time.

"OUR AMMUNITION was running low," continued Sgt. Pustey. "Enemy fire was terrific. Machine, mortar, grenades and small arms fire peppered us from every angle. It was in these circumstances that Sgt. Osborn acted, first to use the enemy grenades to reinforce ebbing Canadian ammunition and finally to smother the enemy grenade he didn't have time to throw."

The award means that Canadian servicemen have won VCs in every major theatre of the war.

CSM Osborn, whose widow and five children live at 41 Gray Ave., St. Vital, a suburb of Winnipeg, was born at Norfolk, Eng., Jan. 2, 1896, and during the First Great War he served with the 6th Royal Naval Division, Hawke's Bay.

At the age of 21 he came to Canada, working for a time for the Canadian National Railway at Toronto and on the prairies, and farming for three years near Oshawa, Ont., and Carleton Place, Ont.

An accident forced him to give up the heavy farm work and with his wife, the former Margaret Elizabeth Nolan of Greys, Man., he settled in Winnipeg and later in the Winnipeg suburb of St. Vital.

ALWAYS INTERESTED in the army since his stint in the Imperial forces, Osborn joined the Winnipeg Grenadiers of the non-permanent active militia in May, 1933, rising to the rank of warrant officer. Called to active service Sept. 8, 1939, he accompanied the Grenadiers to Jamaica in May, 1940. He returned to Canada in October of the following year. Less than three weeks later the battalion left for Hong Kong and Osborn went too.

Mr. Osborn, interviewed at her St. Vital home, said her husband told her just before he left for Hong Kong that he figured he would "be with his boots on."

After his gassing in the First Great War he came to Canada on the advice of his doctor.

HE STOPPED FIRST in Toronto and worked for a time in the railway yards there. Then he went on to Wapella, where he was and for some months on the farm of W. Cole.

In 1921 he got a job with a maintenance gang on the CNR where he remained until 1926, working around Carleton Place. He then decided to try farming again and began work near Carleton Place. He had to give this up when he was injured in an accident in 1929. During the depression CSM Osborn and his family had to go on relief.

"Many are the times he went out and scrubbed floors to get a few pennies for us," Mr. Osborn recalled.

JUST BEFORE the Grenadiers left Winnipeg tragically struck the little Osborn home at 360 Sherman street, Winnipeg. Patricia, then 12, aged five, tried to light a fire in the stove of the house next door. The fire spread caught fire and she was

Chamber of Princes
Talk India's Future

From Canadian Press, Associated Press and British United

The Nawab of Bhopal, Chancellor of the Indian Chamber of Princes, today appeared before the three-man British cabinet mission now holding sessions with Indian political leaders in New Delhi.

Matters relating to the princes' states of India were discussed. Some princes are said to envisage a division of India into three administrative—"Hindustan" for Congress and others, "Pakistan" for the Moslem League, and "Baluchistan" for the princely states.

The princes, it is understood, have made it clear that they will not stand in the way of the autonomous development of India, but they are believed to desire a treaty with the central government of India framed in such a way as to protect their dynastic succession.

Foreign Minister Max Pettilier told the Swiss parliament today that Switzerland would not become a member of the United Nations. Switzerland will not apply for admission to UNO even if invited to do so as long as our status of permanent neutrality is considered incompatible with certain obligations under the UNO charter of San Francisco, he said.

Foreign Secretary Bevin told the House of Commons today that he will send the Egyptian delegation to negotiate the Egyptian government revision of the Anglo-Egyptian treaty of Alliance of 1936.

The British cabinet in Java announced today that RAF Mosquitoes, summoned to the aid of a convoy ambushed on route from Batavia to Bandung, had made two strafing runs over the area and dispersed ambushing Indonesian forces. Annual Convention

Need for Safety Measures

Stressed of Roads' Meeting
QUEBEC, April 2.—(CP)—The need for safety measures was stressed today at the annual meeting of the Canadian Good Roads Association by Hon. W. S. Anderson, minister of public works for New Brunswick.

DESPITE HEAVY expenditures on safety devices and devices which would have accidents and traffic accidents caused by poor road conditions, the annual report, adding that a recent magazine article revealed 1,200 Canadian deaths and 27,000 serious injury this year, with property loss running into millions of dollars.

While continuing to advocate closer supervision of drivers, strict vehicle inspection, more uniformity in traffic rules and devices, and severe legal penalties and wider campaigns of education, the report suggested a group of the membership make a national survey of remote, as well as immediate, causes of road accidents, and steps to decrease a "menace little worse than war."

The report was presented by the vice-president since the president, Hon. J. D. McKenzie, minister of highways and public works for Nova Scotia, retired from public life last year.

CONCLUSIONS of the Dominion-Provincial Conference now in progress will have much bearing on highway and bridge undertakings, said the report.

Recommendations by provincial governments of the principle of applying all motor vehicle gasoline taxes to highway purposes was urged by Mr. A. Stappell of Toronto, president of the Canadian Automobile Association. Mr. Stappell said motor taxation instituted early in the century, was nominal at first, while other road-user taxes were increased.

BUT WITH the demand for construction of better roads, taxation gradually increased until in some provinces it exceeded 100 per cent of road expenditures, despite the protests of motorists that it was too high.

He walked the 2½ miles to court and appeared on time. The witnesses didn't make it, so the court dismissed the case.

Hatten returned home — on foot. "I'm not so sure I favor this strike right now," said the member of the striking transportation union.

Responsibility to Youth
Is Theme of Convention

OLDS—"Our responsibility to the citizens of tomorrow" will be the theme of all proceedings, addresses, discussions and business at the annual meeting and convention of the Alberta Federation of Home and School Associations in the Olds School of Agriculture at Olds, April 16, 17 and 18, over which G. F. Bruce of Edmonton will preside.

The school will again be the living quarters and social centre as well as convention headquarters for the executive members and delegates who will gather from all parts of the province.

It is expected from reservation already made, that the attendance will greatly exceed that of last year, especially as there have been 37 new associations formed during the year, bringing the number of affiliated to 115, and the individual membership to more than 6,000.

A rural council of Home and School Associations, the first in Alberta, was also recently organized. It was the Olds Division Council of which Mrs. A. T. Kemp of Olds was elected the first president. The other two councils are being organized in Calgary and Edmonton.

Two of the high-lights of the convention will be the visit of the Canadian Federation of Home and

M. J. Caldwell, CCF leader, expressed support for Mr. Bertrand's resolution and commended himself to the support of the house. Those who could not earn their daily bread and were shut in and suffered should be recognized as the responsibility of the country.

Manitoba Favored to Win First Home Game

By Don Killips

AS Canadians prepared to take to the ice at the Winnipeg Amphitheatre for the fourth game in the best of seven Western Canada junior hockey finals tonight, the fans back here were just waiting and wondering. There were few, in any, who would give you odds on the Edmonton puck-chasers emerging as winners, but still there was a lot of that old faithful spirit around.

Canadians are definitely in the toughest spot they have been all season, and although they figured they knocked over just as good a bunch of hockey men when they eliminated Moose Jaw, Canada's four games to one, the situation doesn't look too promising. The local lads are just one game down, though, and shouldn't be held short by any means. In the two games they lost here to the Monarchs they failed to encounter a period. That isn't the kind of hockey they have been playing. They are usually scored for two or three goals in the first frame and if they can get back on the right track, the western junior fan could easily brighten to a nice glow for Earl Robertson's boys.

THE WINNIPEG ice surface is considerably smaller than the Edmonton sheet and whether it will make any difference is a high question for anybody so far away to answer. Canadians played two exhibition games in the Manitoba capital last fall and came out with a pair of ties so the home crowd is no two-stage. The smaller surface could even be an advantage to the visiting team.

That might seem like a prepositional statement, but it might be that the reason for their failure to click in the two they dropped here, a small sheet would keep pretty good.

Would Boost Interest

Suggests Team Golf Match Between Canadian, U.S. Pros

By LORNE BRUCE

VANCOUVER, April 2.—(CP)—Stan Leonard, professional at the Marine Drive Golf and Country Club, thinks a team match between United States and Canadian pros would boost interest in the game in this country.

The long-time former Canadian PGA champion suggested in an interview Monday that an appropriate place and time might be Winnipeg and just prior to the open tourney in the Manitoba capital this summer.

Leonard said that he has written Earl Morris of Montreal, tournament manager for the PGA, making the suggestion.

The team match proposal has all sorts of possibilities, said Stan. "We know who are the better golfers and there is little doubt about which team will win but it will create good advertising for the Canadians."

"It will also show the PGA is progressive. The team match idea may not be opportune right now, but if we keep hammering with ideas we'll get a good suggestion some day."

Stan believes that the Winnipeg tourney will be one of the few when most Canadian and American pros will be at one place at the same time and it would be an ideal time to hold the team match if one is to be held.

The young Vancouver pro said the PGA naturally will make the final decision on how such a team match would be run.

But just as a basis for planning, he suggested that eight or 10 Canadians might meet the best of the American pros.

He also said that he has written Earl Morris of Montreal, tournament manager for the PGA, making the suggestion.

Have 82 Players Listed

Toronto Leafs Take Stock

In Planning to Rebuild

Will Play

TORONTO, April 2.—(CP)—Toronto's National Hockey League Maple Leafs, rebuilding their shattered machine for next season, took stock Monday and announced they have little to or options on 82 players of all shapes and sizes. The list includes seven goaltenders, 23 defencemen and 52 forwards.

They spelled out under such index titles as reserve, contingent reserve, special reserve, negotiation, contingent negotiation, keepers, voluntary retired, and suspended. Contingent list players are outgrowth of the war to accommodate players who went into the service.

NOT ALL FIGURE in Leaf plans of course. Veterans like Maurice Richard, Doug Bentley, and Bud Folsiey are high priced.

Bud Bentley returned from active participation at the end of this season. Waivers have been asked on Thornton and Bentley.

They do decide to play more, but David will be fitted into the Leaf board strategy, probably as a minor-league coach.

Waivers also have been asked on Eric Dickson, Doug Bentley, and Mel Hill. If they are not released, they will be placed with minor league teams.

Only seven of this season's Leaf team have been assigned to 1946-47. The new line-up will be: Broda, rearguard Bob Goldman, and forwards Gabe Stewart, Billie Stark, Syd Ambrose, and Bill Beardsley.

Beardsley, goalies on the list are Bud Bastien, who played most of this season with Pittsburgh, of the American League, Frank McCool, replaced by Broda near season's end, Gordie Bell, Leaf's substitute in the early season, Harvey Hawer, Bob Gilson and Huk.

Huk is a youngster recommended by Father Murray at the Notre Dame athletic institution at St. Catharines, Ont.

Included in the defence contingent besides Goldman, Dickson and Baldwin, are Babe Pratt, Walter Stanislaw, Elwyn Morris, with the Leafs this season; Pete Backer and G. Borach of Pittsburgh.

Tommy (Cowboy) Anderson and Bingo Kampan of Providence Reds; Vic Grigg, Doug Jones and Bobby Copp, who came out of the armed forces late in the season.

FUTURE prospects include Edie Catta, Phil Sama, both of the American League, and Elwyn Morris, of Ottawa's Junior General.

Forwards include Art Jackson, of Winnipeg's Junior Monarchs, and Elwyn Morris, of Ottawa's Junior General.

Some younger ones counted on for the long-term future are Tom Sloan, Les Costello, Fleming MacKay, and Bob Paul of the crack Toronto St. Michaels College junior club.

Curk, the Hildebrand and Don Baxter of Ottawa's All-Buchanan of Winnipeg, Monarchs.

Four other western Canadian youngsters are in the Leaf hockey pool are Bud McPherson of Edmonton, Al Travis of Winnipeg, Gordon Stinson of Regina, and John Carpenter and Ray Carreano from the head of the lake.

Created a list of seven men in four play-off games for Port Arthur against Winnipeg Monarchs.

McPherson, who has been with Ottawa next season. Carpenter, a Lakehead product, enrolled at University of Manitoba after getting his way discharge.

The ROAD AREA

By HARPER PROWSE, M.L.A.

IT HAS been interesting to sit in the Legislature and listen to the arguments presented by various interested parties for and against the adoption of the 40-hour week with the 60 cent per hour minimum wage. I do not think that any could have listened to those arguments, nor marked the evident sincerity of the men who made them, without realizing the depth and complexity of the problems which face us when we would build a "brave new world". After it was all over I was oppressed with a horrible feeling of helplessness and frustration—exactly the same kind of a feeling we used to get overseas during an air raid, or an artillery bombardment.

I Saw Today

AS I LISTENED to Labor make their case for the shorter week and the higher pay and greater security for workers I noted that even if we could give them what they asked for they would hardly have more than a bare existence—certainly it would not provide them with many of the luxuries and comforts which so many people enjoy today on this continent. Judged by any acceptable standard their claims seemed to be excessively modest and reasonable.

Yet when I heard the farmers explain their problems, make their claim for "parity prices," and the employers explain the problems which faced them—then I was quite impressed with their aims.

Neil Cottville Back in City

Sue "Farmin's" Swell But New York Ranger Ace Still Likes Hockey

Neil Cottville, defenceman during the last season with the ill-starred New York Rangers, has gone into the agricultural industry—but he won't be extracting a living from the soil by operating the farm machinery himself.

The 34-year-old centre-defenceman arrived in Edmonton today to spend the winter with the week renewing acquaintances in the old home town. He said he'll be heading Union, Alberta, soon and will remain there until the middle of May when he expects to return to the Alberta capital to attend the wedding of his brother, Max Cottville, to Edna Royds of Edmonton. After that it's the land of Uncle Sam again he'll be pleased to return to the home town.

Prominent in athletic circles ever since he was old enough to know the difference between golf club and a hockey wand, Neil is looking forward to returning to the ice with the Rangers next season. He figures the Rangers will be playing a better picture next winter than they did in the last.

A LOT OF OUR PLAYERS, just out of the service, had their old ability but they didn't have the necessary form. He believes that when the Rangers come back the blue-line for the '46-47 season, they'll pile up the points sufficient to mark them. If not as winners, certainly as strong contenders for the Stanley cup.

"And our club wasn't so out of the loop," he said. "The great White Star pointed out... I was playing pretty close games and like team play, played to phenomenal results."

Concerning local football, the captain of the New Yorkers was asked if he would like to play for the Edmonton Rough Riders. He said he would like to play for the Rough Riders, but he was not sure if he would like to play for the Rough Riders.

DURING HIS TRAVELS west, Cottville expects to visit briefly his farm investment in the United States. He said he would like to visit his farm investment in the United States.

Find Driver Guilty To Make Check

Paul DeChamplain, 36-year-old air force veteran of the West coast, was found guilty in supreme court Monday by Mr. Justice S. J. Shepherd on a manslaughter charge. However, he was found not guilty on a charge of dangerous driving, and fined $100, or in default of payment was ordered to serve 30 days in the Fort Saskatchewan jail.

THE CHARGE against the accused arose out of the automobile collision near Mortville on Feb. 18 last in which Joe Peplin, Athabasca district Cree Indian trader, and for trader, received injuries from which he died.

Evidence given at the trial showed that Peplin was driving a truck along the middle of the road north of Mortville when he was struck by the motor car. A witness traveling in the accused's motor car told the jury the post office was dead, and that the wagon was not visible until the motor car was within 100 feet.

WHEN THE WAGON was sighted the accused swerved his automobile to the right and he was deceased a few feet later. Peplin, according to the witness also swerved to the right.

Following the verdict of Peplin's conviction, Tanner, C. J. and turned over in the ditch. None of the five occupants of the automobile was hurt. The speed of the automobile at the time of the accident was between 35 and 40 miles an hour.

Guy Patterson, K.C., prosecuted. The accused, Maclean, K.C., acted for the defence.

PREVIOUS TO becoming a postmaster, Crandall was with the Canadian Company, in 1922. He was president of the North Edmonton Community League, and for the last 20 years has been a member of the City of Edmonton.

Mr. Crandall will be succeeded by Reg. A. Butler, who has just returned from overseas with the Canadian Signal Corps.

THOSE WHO ride trains during the day, too, often find themselves baring more than they wish. It's rather common occurrence for bandits to board trains, go from coach to coach, stripping off coats, stockings, shoes, dresses, jewelry and any object that suits their fancy. One Polish girl, travelling from Cracow to Warsaw to be married, was robbed of her entire dowry.

"To ensure delivery of clothing for next winter, large shipments must be ready to leave Canada by early summer," he said. "Only the offered co-operation of the IODE makes this a reasonable possibility."
